Some Things You Know and Some You Don't Know About Our Towns, County & People

—And all the Pickens county people tried to spend Thanksgiving at home.

—The Pickens minstrels will put Al Field in the shade. Look for the date.

—For land anywhere in Pickens county see or write J. R. Ashmore, "The Land Man."

—Cotton is sticking close around the 14 cent mark while the seed are bringing over $28 per ton.

—Dr. E. G. Kirven, dentist of Easley, will be in Pickens every Wednesday. Office over Keowee Pharmacy.

—Monday was off-day in Pickens. There no people in town trading and the merchants spent most of their time taking sun baths.

—Dr. Bolt says that some few have come forward in response to his appeal and paid him. He is anxious for others to do likewise.

—One of the best attractions of the season will be given soon by the talent of the city. They are working hard on it now. Dates will be announced later.

—Henry D. Hendricks of Level Land, S. C., was in Pickens Tuesday on business. He is running a big farm at Level Land and came up to see if he could buy some good mules at a low price. It is needless to say that he failed in his mission.

—Keep your eye on our advertising columns. Tell these merchants that you saw their ad in this paper; it will please them and may be help you in your purchases, any way it will show that you read their appeals for your trade.

—M. L. Simmons, who for the past year, has been miller for the Ivy Milling Co., has thrown up the job and moved over to G. A. Ellis' place where he will till the soil for a livelihood another year. Marvin is a good farmer, has good land to tend and will succeed.

—We are living in hopes of collecting a few dollars this fall, but Dr. Bolt is not so cheerful. We are working around Pickens now, trying to clean up this list, and as soon as we can do something with it, will hit other sections of the county where we know we are going to get our money. We are printing up an extra lot of receipts now to take along with us and hope to fill them all out before we get back.

On the night of the 10th inst. while at a corn shucking at the home of Mr. W. F. Simmons, Fletcher Stewart a young fellow about 16 years old had both bones of his right leg broken just above the ankle while in a friendly wrestle with one of his neighbors. Mr. Sheriff Brown was sent for and went over and helped to get Fletcher home and medical attention to him. At last accounts he was doing as well as could be expected.

There are getting to be some fine stock in the county, that will be used later for breeding purposes. Two we have in mind now, one owned by B. H. Callahan of Liberty, which he had on exhibition in Pickens one day last week; the other, a two-year old colt now owned by W. C. Newton, of our town. These are two fine colts and will take a premium wherever they are shown and will be the sires of some extra fine horse-stock in this country in a few years. They are two beauties.

—Born, the 20th instant unto Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davis, a daughter.

Claude Hester has turned out to be a trader in coon dogs and plug horses.

—Money to loan at a low rate of interest. See James Kirksey Jr., Crow Creek, S. C.

—Martin School opened Monday, the 21st instant with Prof. Henry A. Townes wielding the birch.

—Have you purchased that farm yet? See H. M. Hester, "The Real Estate Man," he has some bargains on his list.

—What about that Christmas fruit cake? We have raisins, dates, figs and citron ready for you. Keowee Supply Co.

—Will sell my household goods on Saturday the 26th inst. at 9 a. m. at my home at Pickens Cotton Mill. T. H. Stewart.

—For Sale—Fine Piano, splendid tone, nearly new at a sacrifice of less than half the original cost. Good reasons for selling. See B. E. Grandy, Pickens.

Land to rent—20 acres extra good land to rent. Good 4-room house. Good chance for right man. Apply to E. W. Pickens, Pickens, R. R. 5, near Twelve Mile church.

—If you want to dream pleasant dreams, live to a ripe old age and leave a fortune to your children, eat and wear only the best bought of the Keowee Supply Company.

—The Medical Society of the Fourth District is in session in Greenville this week and several of the physicians of this county are in attendance. Several important papers are to be read.

—The Pickens Railroad will operate a special train to Easley Monday night on account of the John H. Sparks shows. Everybody go that can get off. This is a pretty good show and is well worth going to see.

—Married, at Catechee on the 21st instant, Mr. Will Rollins to Miss Myrtle Teat, daughter of Mr. J. A. C. Teat, of Catechee. The happy young couple have the congratulations of their many friends. J. Alonzo Brown at the throttle of course.

—The barn of Mr. Philip Robertson, living near the Gassaway bridge on Twelve Mile River was destroyed by fire Tuesday night about 8 o'clock. Some roughness was also consumed. The stock, vehicles, farming tools, etc., were saved. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mr. B. D. Garvin, who has been trying to dodge the measles all his life, has picked a bad time to have them. He is now confined to his room with a full case. His son Jeff, who has been working in Atlanta, has come home to assist in the collection of taxes and look after the treasurer's office.

Mr. Lucian Hendricks, who, for some time has been living at Easley, has bought an interest in the Ivy Milling Co's plant, at Pickens, and will henceforth have charge of the business and see after the grinding, especially the collecting of the toll—and looking after the business generally. He is a good miller and will, no doubt be a valuable acquisition to the company.

—Several Pickens county people have reached the conclusion that they can do better elsewhere, so are moving to other sections, or will go later. Among those who have moved this week we notice J. J. (Colonel) Lewis, who has bought a farm in Anderson county and Robt. S. Porter and Theodore Lewis, who have bought farms near Lincolnton, Ga. May these and all others that leave Pickens never be dissatisfied with the move they have voluntarily made.

—Last Friday evening near Mr. Pruitt's saw mill, near Liberty, Sam Boggs was killed by his cousin Henry Boggs. From the testimony adduced at the inquest, it is a hard matter to get at the facts. The witnesses were too far away to hear any words and only saw the shooting. Sam and Henry were coming down the road together, presumably drinking some, and probably fell out over some trivial matter, as is usual under such circumstances, and Henry having a pistol on his person used it. These are about the facts and opinions of those who saw the homicide and heard the testimony at the inquest. Henry was lodged in jail that night and has retained counsel who will make application for bail.

BEARING FRUIT.

Our appeals to our subscribers is bearing some fruit. Several have come forward and paid up and occasionally a new one comes in. We receive letters saying they will come, not to give them out. The last mail brought the following: "I write to let you know I haven't forgot that I owe you for my paper and ought to have paid you a long time ago, but I have had such a hard time this Summer that I can't do nothing hardly but I will come up and pay up just as quick as can get straightened out, so I thought I would write and tell you it won't be but a few days till I can come."

We know this man; he is truthful and honest and will come and pay his account. He is one year behind. Only $2.00 will pay him up to February 1912.
